Jesus Christ began building His Church 2,000 years ago. He's still building it today. And guess what. He's using you and me to do it.

Because of Christ, because of the Holy Spirit's presence within us, we have no ordinary encounters. Everywhere we go, Christ is there on display in our every interaction. Every meeting is an opportunity to convey His love or communicate His truth. Who is adequate for such a thing?

Not that we are adequate in ourselves to consider anything as coming from ourselves, but our adequacy is from God, who also made us adequate as servants of a new covenant (that is, a "new testament"), not of the letter, but of the Spirit; for the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life. –2 Corinthians 3:5-6

That's why we train. We spend regular time with God to be used by Him to give life. We take in God's Word and breathe out our requests to the Father every day to gain a greater understanding of God and a deeper reliance on Him. But more importantly, spending time with God gives Him a little more of us, so we can be more useful to Him.

Useful in a life-changing, church-building kind of way.

Bible Reading Plan and Prayer Guide

(Year TWO) May 2018

According to my earnest expectation and hope, that I will not be put to shame in anything, but that with all boldness, Christ will even now, as always, be exalted in my body, whether by life or by death. For to me to live is Christ and to die is gain. –Philippians 1:20-21

Our Mission

There's more to spending time with God than getting spiritually fit. Jesus' triumph over sin on the cross and over death at the resurrection are historical facts with present-day implications. Christ saved us for a purpose. We are called to a mission.

Each day, we access God's truth through His Word and His power through prayer, so that God can equip us to follow His will and accomplish His purpose. With Paul, we boldly exalt Christ through ...

- Loving Action: Showing the compassion of Christ by ministering to the needs of others
- Gospel Witness: Informing others of their need of salvation, which is available through Christ alone
- Intentional Discipleship: Equipping others to grow in Christ through Bible study, prayer, and ministry
- Transformed Relationships: Demonstrating Christ's character in our love for family, church, and community
- Kingdom Aspiration: Giving our lives to Christ; dedicating all we are, have, and do to accomplish God's work on earth

Feel inadequate for all this? Well ... we are. That's why God sent the Holy Spirit to live inside us. The Spirit came on the Day of Pentecost, which we celebrate this month. The Spirit's filling transformed the disciples from frightened, confused deniers into bold, confident proclaimers. The world is no longer the same.
