

When I was a kid, my mom and dad made sure my four siblings and I were out the door for church on time, with or without socks. We knew it was important to be in the “Kammeyer pew” for every hour of the Sunday service, whether we wanted to or not.

So, as I was hearing about God at church, I was also seeing Him in the world He created. My mom would stop me and point out the beauty of our garden's spider webs. My dad would show us the amazing life teeming in the tide pools at Laguna Beach. Their love of nature did not stop there. They instilled in me that the creation had to have a Creator, a Designer, and His name was God.

And most importantly, they told me that this big, powerful God created me and loved me! Little Terri Kammeyer. He loved me!

I remember taking off secretly and walking along the dirt roads near my home, picking up trash, putting it in my little red wagon, and singing as loud as I could to Him. That was the beginning of my heart loving God back. Though guilty of many sins, I knew God forgave me when I was truly sorry. I learned through those countless hours at church and from my parents that God adopted me and that I am His, and He is mine.

I know you desire the same for your children. That's why you come to Northpoint. That is why we, your NP K!ds staff, are here. We want to support and encourage you to keep your relationship with your Savior strong so that you can pass on your faith to your kids. No matter how hard life becomes, please stay involved with your church family. God has given you all of us to help you celebrate the good times and support you in the bad. Keep being the parents God has designed you to be—parents who depend, trust, and model Christ's love.

As many of you know, Bob and I moved my parents into our home last October. In January, my mom died in bed with an open Bible on her nightstand. I took note of that. That is exactly what I would have expected. Your kids are taking note of you, too.

May we help each other to put more and more of Christ into our days. He is our wonderful, forgiving, all-powerful Savior and the only King who deserves our all and all.

Oh, and by the way, you may notice me pulling a little red wagon around the Northpoint campus on Sunday mornings. Now you know why!

For God's K!d's, Miss Terri

May & June Family Memory Challenges

Children who learn their memory challenges will be given reward trinkets on May 26th & June 30th. Younger children are welcome to learn just the underlined parts.

Acts 1:8

"You will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth."

Acts 16:31 "And they said, Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved."

How do people hear about Jesus?

God uses Christians to tell others about Jesus so they can repent and be saved.

Keep on Loving God + Loving One Another + Reaching His World
