FOR THE SAKE OF
MY SERVANT DAVID

WELCOME!

We're honored you've decided to spend the morning with us. Please know that we're here to assist you in any way we can with your quest to grow closer to God. WHAT TO EXPECT THIS MORNING

We'll give to God's work with a money offering. (If you're visiting, please don't feel obligated to give.) We'll hear a message from God to us from the Bible. Then, we'll sing a closing song.

TODAY'S FOCUS

This morning, we'll continue with a new sermon series through the Old Testament Books of 1 and 2 Kings, For the Sake of My Servant David, with the message, Every Man Under His Vine, where the text will point us to a better and more lasting kingdom than Solomon's.

Every Man Under His Vine

1 Kings 4

Dr. Tony Chute, Lead Pastor

Overview: The author of 1 Kings describes how Solomon's reign over Israel brought peace to all the people in accordance with God's promises to make the nation a blessing to the world. Using the wisdom given to him by God, Solomon surrounds himself with capable officials and administrators who, in turn, secure labor and financial support for the kingdom. Consequently, the population grows, the people enjoy prosperity, the nation experiences peace, and people from all nations are drawn to hear the wisdom of Solomon. Although warning signs of future difficulties are embedded within the text, the narrative itself celebrates God's work among His people and points us to a better and more lasting kingdom.

01. Peace and prosperity come from the Lord, thus demonstrating the goodness and kindness of God towards His people.

02. Peace and prosperity come from good leadership and shared vision, thus encouraging us to use our gifts for the good of God's people.

03. Peace and prosperity are fleeting and easily lost, thus reminding us to be nimble and to protect the unity of God's people.

QUESTIONS FOR DISCUSSION & DISCOVERY

1. What was the role of the "high officials" mentioned in verses 1-6? How do their roles contribute to the common good of the nation? What is meant by "forced labor" in verse 6? How was the implementation of this system a sign that all was not well in the kingdom?

2. The role of the officers in verses 7-19 is largely that of collecting taxes in order to fund government. However, how did the collection of taxes enable Solomon to live like a king (verses. 22-28)? What does the text suggest about the necessity of taxation and the responsible use of government funds?

3. How do verses 20-21 reflect on God's goodness to Israel? What is the meaning of verse 25, "every man under his vine and his fig tree?" What do these texts suggest about enjoying life under the kind and gracious hand of God? How do these texts point to the future kingdom when Christ will reign?

4. Note how Solomon was able to speak about many different topics – trees, animals, etc. In what way does his ability to speak on various topics demonstrate the wisdom of God on display in all of creation? Do you marvel at the wisdom of God as you look at creation? Read Psalm 8 for further insight.

5. Why were the people from all nations and kings of all the earth attracted to Solomon and to Israel (verse 34)? What qualities of the king and the kingdom made others want to see for themselves what was taking place? Do you think the church can attract people from the outside by living in harmony under the rule of the king, with each contributing their gifts for the glory of God? Pray that we will do the same at Northpoint.

PRAISE TO THE LORD, THE ALMIGHTY

All ye who hear, now to His temple draw near
Join me in glad adoration

Verse 2

Praise to the Lord, who o'er all things so wondrously reigneth
Shelters thee under His wings, yea so gently sustaineth
Hast thou not seen
How thy desires e'er have been
Granted in what He ordaineth?
Granted in what He ordaineth?

GREAT ARE YOU LORD

So we pour out our praise
We pour out our praise
It's Your breath in our lungs
So we pour out our praise
We pour out our praise

It's Your breath in our lungs
So we pour out our praise
We pour out our praise
It's Your breath in our lungs
So we pour out our praise
We pour out our praise, only

Verse 3

Praise to the Lord, who doth prosper thy work and defend thee
Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee
Ponder anew what the Almighty can do
If with His love He befriend thee
If with His love He befriend thee

Verse 4

Praise to the Lord, O let all that is in me adore Him
All that hath life and breath
Come now with praises before Him
Let the "amen" sound from His people again
Gladly forever adore Him!
Gladly forever adore Him!

GREAT ARE YOU LORD

Chorus

It's Your breath in our lungs
So we pour out our praise
We pour out our praise
It's Your breath in our lungs
So we pour out our praise

We pour out our praise
It's Your breath in our lungs

ALTOGETHER GOOD

Verse 1

How could we recount the ways
That You have multiplied our faith?
The wisdom of Your ways
The currents of your grace expressed
In every moment, every wave

Chorus

In the darkness where we go
You are there, You are love
You are altogether good
In the weakness of our faith
In the silence where we wait
You are here, You're enough
You are altogether good

Through our joys and in our griefs
You have led us to believe
The wisdom of Your ways
The currents of Your grace expressed
Our only hope for all our days
