SET THE EXAMPLE

1 TIMOTHY 4:12

WELCOME!

We're honored you've decided to spend the morning with us. Please know that we're here to assist you in any way we can with your quest to grow closer to God. Below, you'll find what we'll be doing during today's service. On the right panel, you can get an idea of what happens around Northpoint each week and things we're looking forward to.

WHAT TO EXPECT THIS MORNING

Today, we'll start by reading a short passage from the Bible to focus our attention on God. We'll sing songs of praise to Him. We'll pray to Him. We'll again read from the Bible. We'll give to God's work with a money offering. (If you're visiting, please don't feel obligated to give.) We'll hear a message from God to us from the Bible. Then, we'll sing a closing song.

TODAY'S FOCUS

This morning, we'll take a break from our series through the Old Testament Books of 1 and 2 Kings, For the Sake of My Servant David, for the special message, Set the Believers an Example, from 1 Timothy. There, we'll see that the example Timothy was called to set can be a model of Christlikeness that we ought to strive for, regardless of age.

LOVING GOD • LOVING ONE ANOTHER • REACHING HIS WORLD

Set the Believers an Example

1 Timothy 4:12

Tyler Van Horssen, Director of Student Ministry

Overview: In 1 Timothy 4:12, Paul is writing to his protégé, Timothy, challenging him to be faithful in rebuking the false teachers in Ephesus and shepherding the flock he had been entrusted with. Culturally, this would have been a difficult thing for Timothy to do because of how age was viewed in the culture. Timothy would have experienced difficulty garnering the respect needed to shepherd the flock well and to rebuke with authority since he was a pastor younger than many of his church's members. To counteract this difficulty, Paul urges Timothy to set the believers in his church an example that would have prevented him from being looked down upon because of his age. The example Timothy was called to set can serve as a model of Christlikeness that we too ought to strive for, regardless of age.

Outline:

Set an example in speech

Set an example in conduct

Set an example in love

Set an example in faith

Set an example in purity

1. When you think of youth or youthfulness, what typically comes to mind? Is it generally positive or negative?
2. How would others describe your speech? What are some characteristics of "live-giving" (godly) speech?
3. When you look at your conduct (the fruit of your life), what does it reveal about where your heart is rooted? What are some ways you can set an example in conduct this week?
4. In your life, why are certain people easier to love than others? How does this reveal a tendency within you to treat love as an emotion rather than an affection?
5. Look at 1 Corinthians 13:4-7. Which characteristic of love is the most difficult for you to embody and why?
6. When have been some of the times in your life that God has challenged you to cling to him in faith? Looking back on those times, how did God reveal himself to be holding tightly to you as well?
7. What desires lie beneath the impurities of your heart? When you have impure motives, what are you hoping to gain? When you have impure thoughts, what are you ultimately seeking?
