FOR THE SAKE OF
MY SERVANT DAVID
FIRST & SECOND KINGS

WELCOME!

We're honored you've decided to spend the morning with us. Please know that we're here to assist you in any way we can with your quest to grow closer to God. Below, you'll find what we'll be doing during today's service. On the right panel, you can get an idea of what happens around Northpoint each week and things we're looking forward to.

WHAT TO EXPECT THIS MORNING

Today, we'll start by reading a short passage from the Bible to focus our attention on God. We'll sing songs of praise to Him. We'll pray to Him. We'll again read from the Bible. We'll give to God's work with a money offering. (If you're visiting, please don't feel obligated to give.) We'll hear a message from God to us from the Bible. Then, we'll sing a closing song.

TODAY'S FOCUS

This morning, we'll continue our sermon series through the Old Testament Books of 1 and 2 Kings, For the Sake of My Servant David, with a message from 2 Kings, Is All Well With You? There, we'll explore a remarkable healing that provides a simple but profound illustration of how the Lord can cleanse us from our sins and make us new.

LOVING GOD • LOVING ONE ANOTHER • REACHING HIS WORLD

Join us THIS Friday, October 24, at 6:30pm., in Heritage Hall, for this year's Reformation Forum. Our theme is The Reformation for Everyone. Our focus will be on how ordinary people sensed the need for reform and how the Reformation changed their everyday lives. We have heard of Luther, Zwingli, and Calvin, but how did the average person view the church before and after the Reformation took place? Matt Beyersdorf and Pastor Tony Chute will present perspectives on various approaches to the Reformation, from Chaucer's Canterbury Tales to Erasmus' Praise of Folly. We will also have a panel discussion with additional speakers who will shed light on the ways in which the Reformation transformed the lives of ordinary people. Our hope is that you will consider how the Lord might use you to promote truth and protect the church from error for years to come.

There's no cost to attend, and childcare is free; just open the camera on your phone, scan the QR Code, or visit tiny.cc/hiyt001 to register and to reserve childcare spots.

You Shall Be Clean

2 Kings 5:1-19

Dr. Tony Chute, Lead Pastor

Overview: Elisha's ministry has proven effective among political figures and ordinary people; now, he is used by the Lord to impact an international figure. Naaman, the commander of the Syrian army, is a man of valor who experienced great military success but faces the daunting reality of being a leper. He hears a word of hope through a young Israelite girl who mentions there is a prophet in Samaria who can cure him. Naaman confers with the king of Syria, who inadvertently sends him with a letter and gifts to the king of Israel. Naaman is then redirected to Elisha, who responds by sending a messenger instructing Naaman to wash in the Jordan River seven times. Naaman thinks he deserves more attention or a better method than what is prescribed and turns away in a rage. His servants speak to him, insisting that Elisha's words are his only hope for healing. When Naaman obeys the word of the prophet, his flesh is restored, and he acknowledges there is no God in all the earth but in Israel. This remarkable healing provides a simple but profound illustration of how the Lord can cleanse us from our sins and make us new.

01. Naaman's situation back then is the same as our situation right now. Despite our accomplishments, character, or resources, we all have a stain we cannot cleanse on our own.

02. Naaman's solution back then is the same as our solution right now. We need to be directed to the right person; humble ourselves before the Lord; and respond by faith in order to be cleansed.

03. Naaman's reaction back then is the same as our reaction even now. Once we are cleansed, we will recognize Christ as King; we will worship without being told; and we will learn as we grow.

1. What characteristics are highlighted in verse 1 that depict Naaman as a man of great accomplishments and character? How does the single phrase, "but he was a leper," change the entire equation? What does such a remark teach us about our own vulnerability before the Lord?

2. Consider the life circumstances of the unnamed young girl in verses 2-3. Would anyone have blamed her if she chose to remain silent about the possibility of her captor's health being curable? How does her situation in exile reflect the original audience of 1-2 Kings, which was also living in exile at this time?

3. What was Naaman's understanding of how he might be healed, according to verse 5? How does this initial attempt to exchange gifts for healing picture our attempt to merit salvation? What types of things do people rely upon to impress God with in times of need? Is there anything we can give to the Lord that can compare to His gift of salvation to us in Jesus Christ?

4. Why was Naaman put off by Elisha's instruction to dip himself seven times in the Jordan River? How does this simple instruction mirror the simplicity of the gospel, namely that we can be saved by the blood of Christ? How does this text underscore the fact that alternative ways of salvation do not exist?

5. What changes were immediately evident in Naaman's life after he was cleansed from leprosy? What changes occurred in your life when you first came to know the Lord?
