Honor Such Men:
Living Examples of Christlikeness

WELCOME!

We're honored you've decided to spend the morning with us. Please know that we're here to assist you in any way we can with your quest to grow closer to God. Below, you'll find what we'll be doing during today's service. On the right panel, you can get an idea of what happens around Northpoint each week and things we're looking forward to.

WHAT TO EXPECT THIS MORNING

Today, we'll start by reading a short passage from the Bible to focus our attention on God. We'll sing songs of praise to Him. We'll pray to Him. We'll again read from the Bible. We'll give to God's work with a money offering. (If you're visiting, please don't feel obligated to give.) We'll hear a message from God to us from the Bible. Then, we'll sing a closing song.

TODAY'S FOCUS

This morning, we'll take a break from our sermon series through the Old Testament books of 1 and 2 Kings, for a special message, Honor Such Men: Living Examples of Christlikeness, from the New Testament book of Philippians. There, we'll be encouraged to honor ordinary men and women who are living examples in the Christian life, transformed by the gospel, and whose lives are patterned after Christ's selfless concern and self-sacrificial service.

LOVING GOD • LOVING ONE ANOTHER • REACHING HIS WORLD

Honor Such Men: Living Examples of Christlikeness

Philippians 2:19-30

Eli Kang, Northpoint Intern

Overview: When the church of Philippi sent Epaphroditus to the apostle Paul, they intended for him to deliver their gift of financial support and to continue assisting the apostle, perhaps hoping that Timothy would be freed to visit their church. However, they hear that Epaphroditus has fallen ill, and are even more confused when he appears before the church, bearing Paul's letter to the Philippians. As Paul describes his plans to send Timothy and Epaphroditus to the Philippian church, he purposefully uses these two men as examples of the lifestyle that he is exhorting the Philippians to adopt; Timothy and Epaphroditus model selfless concern for others, a commitment to the gospel, and self-sacrificial ministry. However, the ultimate reason the Philippians are to receive Epaphroditus with joy and honor men like him is that both Timothy and Epaphroditus are ordinary people transformed by the gospel to pattern their lives after Christ.

Application

01.

02.

1. Read Acts 16:1-40. What can we learn from Luke's description of the events leading to the church being established in Philippi? What is the significance of Timothy's inclusion in the narrative in how we read Paul's description of Timothy in Philippians 2:19-24?

2. The apostle Paul lived out the kind of life he exhorted the Philippians to live, including in his decision to send Timothy and Epaphroditus to the church in Philippi. Reading Philippians 2:19-30 from this perspective, what does this passage reveal about the way the gospel changed Paul's outlook on life and the choices he made?

3. Read Philippians 1:18-26. Epaphroditus was willing to die for the sake of the gospel, and Paul was willing to live for the sake of the gospel. To die is gain, yet sparing Epaphroditus was a display of God's mercy. How do these two passages help us properly understand the Christian perspective on death?

4. Read Philippians 2:1-11. What connections can you see, both in language and ideas, between Christ's example and the example sent by Timothy and Epaphroditus?

5. Who are the people that God has placed in your life as living examples of Christlikeness? What is honorable about the way they live their lives? What would it look like to honor those people this week?
