WELCOME!

We're honored you've decided to spend the morning with us. Please know that we're here to assist you in any way we can with your quest to grow closer to God. Below, you'll find what we'll be doing during today's service. On the right panel, you can get an idea of what happens around Northpoint each week and things we're looking forward to.

WHAT TO EXPECT THIS MORNING

Today, we'll start by reading a short passage from the Bible to focus our attention on God. We'll sing songs of praise to Him. We'll pray to Him. We'll again read from the Bible. We'll give to God's work with a money offering. (If you're visiting, please don't feel obligated to give.) We'll hear a message from God to us from the Bible. Then, we'll sing a closing song.

TODAY'S FOCUS

This morning, we'll continue our sermon series through the Old Testament books of 1 and 2 Kings, For the Sake of My Servant David, with a message from 2 Kings, chapters 18 and 19, In Whom Do You Now Trust? There, we'll be encouraged to shut out the voices that seek to tear us down rather than build us up in the Lord.

LOVING GOD ▪ LOVING ONE ANOTHER ▪ REACHING HIS WORLD

The 2026 Northpoint Missions Conference begins Friday, May 15, and runs through Sunday, May 17. This is an exciting time for our church as we will celebrate by looking back at the Lord's faithfulness and looking ahead to what He is calling us to do next. You will also hear updates from our local and global partners and see how God is using Northpoint to transform lives right here in Corona and around the world. The theme this year is: Until All Have Heard: Emboldening the Vision for the Next Generation: A Look Back, a Look Ahead.

This year's Missions Conference is going to be a wonderful time of songs, stories, sharing updates, and fellowship over meals! We will also have a special time to appreciate our First Responders and Community Partners on Friday Night. (See the other side of this flyer for details.)

Childcare will be provided for kids from birth to 2 years old. In addition, we'll have a special missions-themed program for kids from 3 years old through sixth grade!

Please register by visiting the Northpoint Mission's page at northpointcorona.org, or by scanning our QR Code:

See reverse side for First Responders and Community Partners Appreciation Details

This year, during our upcoming Missions Conference (see other side), we want to recognize and honor our firefighters and police officers in Corona who are putting their lives on the line every single day on our behalf to save lives as well as make our community a safer place to live. To that end, we're launching the Northpoint First Responders Appreciation Project! Here's what we've planned: We want to collect letters of appreciation and encouragement to present to our first responders during the Missions Conference on May 15, at 6:00 p.m. Our desire is to mobilize the whole church for this task because we want to be sure you have the opportunity to bless these service providers.

Here are the Appreciation Project details:

There are 165 police officers and 118 firefighters in Corona, for a total of 283 first responders. So, we want to collect 283 thank-you letters/cards from you, our church family. Families with small children are encouraged to write cards with their children so that we get a variety of notes.

Collection Dates: April 26 through May 13
Drop-off Time: Monday–Thursday, from 8:30 a.m.- 4:30 p.m.
Drop-off Location: We'll set up a bin in the Church Office.

SERMON NOTES APR 26, 2026

In Whom Do You Now Trust?"
2 Kings 18:13-19:37
Dr. Tony Chute, Lead Pastor

Overview: Hezekiah's commitment to do what is right in the eyes of the Lord does not exempt him from fear or doubt when confronted by adversaries. He quickly capitulates when confronted by the king of Syria, such that he willingly surrenders excessive amounts of silver and gold from the Temple, even stripping the gold overlay from the doors and doorposts. Hezekiah's fear only emboldens Sennacherib, who sends his emissaries to exact a full surrender from the people of Judah. His chief spokesman, the Rabshakeh, seeks to undermine Hezekiah's trust in the Lord by pointing to the past weakness of Hezekiah, the proven power of Assyria, and the evident weakness of Judah. When Hezekiah hears about the threats to his kingdom, he responds by taking his concerns to the Lord, thus reinforcing his trust in the Lord. By doing so, Hezekiah provides a model for us today to confront our fears and doubts by doubling down on the character and actions of our glorious God.

01. Our trust in God is eroded when we listen to the voices that remind us of our past failure, focus on our present weakness, and condemn us to a bleak future.

02. Our trust in God is strengthened when we listen to the Lord who assures us of His greatness, forgives us of our failures, strengthens us in our weakness, and promises a glorious future.

QUESTIONS FOR DISCUSSION & DISCOVERY

1. Given the fact that Hezekiah does what is right in the eyes of the Lord, are you surprised that he still faces difficulties? What do you make of such teachings that suggest you can live victoriously as a believer without any semblance of difficulty?

2. Hezekiah boldly introduced religious reforms to Judah. Why do you suppose he capitulated so quickly when confronted by the king of Assyria? What lengths did he go to in order to spare his country and his life? What does his initial reaction suggest about responding in fear rather than faith? Did his fear turn the king of Assyria back, or did it increase his troubles?

3. Note the tactics the Rabshakeh uses in order to break the will of the people. He points out the past failure of Hezekiah and the present weakness of Judah. Do these tactics sound familiar? In what ways are you tempted to fear others based on what they say or think about you?

4. What is the significance of 2 Kings 19:1? How does the timing of Hezekiah's response demonstrate immediate dependence on the Lord? Why was it significant for him to go to the house of the Lord? What comfort could he gain by sending men to the prophet Isaiah? When fear and doubts assail you, do you find comfort in the Word of God and the people of God?

5. Read Hezekiah's prayer in 2 Kings 19:14-19. Note how it is God-centered. What is the significance of the words, "you alone" and "you have made the heavens and the earth"? Given these realities, is there any legitimate basis for our fears and doubts? Ask the Lord to incline His ear to you and help you to trust Him always, especially in your times of fear.
