WELCOME!

We're honored you've decided to spend the morning with us. Please know that we're here to assist you in any way we can with your quest to grow closer to God. Below, you'll find what we'll be doing during today's service. On the right panel, you can get an idea of what happens around Northpoint each week and things we're looking forward to.

WHAT TO EXPECT THIS MORNING

Today, we'll start by reading a short passage from the Bible to focus our attention on God. We'll sing songs of praise to Him. We'll pray to Him. We'll again read from the Bible. We'll give to God's work with a money offering. (If you're visiting, please don't feel obligated to give.) We'll hear a message from God to us from the Bible. Then, we'll sing a closing song.

TODAY'S FOCUS

This morning, we'll conclude our Reformation-themed series through the five Solas, Soli Deo Gloria, with the message, To Him Be Glory Forever, from the New Testament book of Romans. There, we'll see that God alone is to be praised for our salvation.

LOOKING AHEAD AT NORTHPOINT *

Thinking about participating in our next Parent–Child Dedication? There will be a short interest meeting TODAY, in Tower Room, between services, at 10:15 a.m. The dedications will be Sunday, November 15. If you can't make the meeting, you can still participate in the dedications by contacting Michele Balga in the Church Office at 951.734.1335.

Learn about Northpoint's beliefs and mission at Discovering Membership, TODAY, from 12:30 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. Lunch and child care provided. Register at the Information Center.

NP is partnering with Olive Crest to provide Thanksgiving Baskets for families that would not otherwise have the means to celebrate the holiday. Want to participate? Pick up a flyer at the Info Center in the Foyer to see what you'll need. Drop baskets off in the Church Office THIS week, Monday-Thursday, or in the Foyer by NEXT Sunday, November 8. Want to help us assemble the bags? Then, join us NEXT Sunday, November 8, at 4:00 p.m. in the Commons.

On Sunday, November 22, Northpoint turns 50! Join us as we come together for a special single-service Family Sunday (students in grades 1-12 will attend with their families), then gather again that afternoon for a Thanksgiving Potluck to celebrate Northpoint's 50th anniversary. Details to follow.

 For more ways to connect with the Northpoint family, see the back of this program.*

LOVING GOD ▪ LOVING ONE ANOTHER ▪ REACHING HIS WORLD

SERMON NOTES

NOV 1, 2026

To Him Be the Glory Forever
Romans 11:33-36
Dr. Tony Chute, Lead Pastor

Overview: The Reformation doctrine of soli Deo gloria is found throughout the Bible but is perhaps best amplified in Romans 11:33-36, where the Apostle Paul exults in the glory of God in light of His plan of salvation. The broader context of this overwhelming pronouncement of praise begins with Paul addressing the seeming failure of the gospel to penetrate the hearts of the Israelites, whose history contained the covenant promises of God and whose heritage gave the Messiah to the world. Instead of concluding that God's Word had failed because few Israelites believed, Paul rejoices in the fact that God's sovereign plan is perfectly intact as His mercy extends to Jews and Gentiles alike in the past, present, and future. He rightly gives God alone the glory because His wisdom and knowledge are deep and rich; His judgments and ways are unsearchable and inscrutable; no one can fully know the mind of the Lord or offer Him counsel; and no one is capable of placing God in their debt. Soli Deo Gloria is our appropriate response, "for from Him and to Him and through Him are all things."

Soli Deo Gloria

QUESTIONS FOR DISCUSSION & DISCOVERY

1. Read Romans 11:33-36 as an independent unit—just thinking about the words apart from the broader context. What reasons are listed directing us to give God glory for all things? If you were to do an inventory of your life, for what specific reasons would you give God glory?

2. Read Romans 9-11 in one sitting. How does Paul's doxology in 11:33-36 finalize the overall argument of God's plan of salvation? Are there any areas in Romans 9-11 where one might take credit for God's plan of salvation or the specific details of how that plan works through history?

3. In what ways do humans in general fail to give God glory? How would you explain the glory of God to a non-Christian? What evidences of God's glory do we see in creation (see Psalm 19:1-6)? What evidences do we see of God's glory in His Word (see Psalm 19:7-14)? What evidences do we see of God's glory in our salvation?

4. How do the Reformation doctrines of salvation by grace alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone, support the doctrine of glory to God alone? If we add anything else to this list—things like merit or works—can we truly say that God is the sole source of our salvation?

5. Paul's doxology in Romans 11:33-36 can easily be turned into a guide for prayer. Take time to praise God for who He is and what He has done, noting that everything we are and have comes from Him. Ask Him to help you recognize His wisdom in all things, especially when your life seems out of balance. Pray for a heart to give Him glory in all things.
